

WEBSITE TERMS OF USE OUTSCALE

Data collected on our websites

When you visit our website, we collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behavior patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. We collect this information in a way that does not identify anyone. We will not associate any data gathered from this site with any personally identifying information from any source.

If we do want to collect information through our website, we will inform you about this. We will make it clear when we collect personal information and will explain what we intend to do with it.

You should be aware, however, that access to web pages will generally create log entries in the systems of your ISP or network service provider. These entities may be in a position to identify the client computer equipment used to access a page. Such monitoring would be done by the provider of network services and is beyond the responsibility or control of Outscale.

Every form on the website limits the collection of personal data in accordance with the principle of data minimization and mentions the followings:

- Objectives / purposes of the treatment
- Recipient of the data
- Your rights and how to exercise them

Our website forms are published by Hubspot and Wordpress. You can view Hubspot's privacy policy by clicking here and Wordpress's privacy policy by clicking here. We inform you that Outscale has signed a data processing agreement with Hubspot to guarantee the protection of your data when filling out forms on our websites.

The only recipients of the data you fill in in our forms are: Outscale and eventually Hubspot for forms published by Hubspot.

None of your data may be transmitted to other third parties without your agreement.

Security and confidentiality

Confidentiality of your personal information and your privacy are very important to us. That is why we keep trying to meet the highest standards when collecting and using personal information.

Data collected as part of services offered on our websites are processed according to secure procedures.
